Sara Legnani

Complementary therapist and acupuncturist

Work Experience

In 2006 he graduated in obstetrics from the University of Insubria in Varese and immediately started working in CSA. In the following years she obtained her diploma as AIMI massage teacher and neonatal aquatics teacher.

In 2016, she graduated as a shiatsu therapist at the Hakusha school in Varese and her passion for Chinese medicine led her to start a course in acupuncture at Scuolatao in Lugano, where she obtained her diploma in 2018.

She currently works at the Sant'Anna Clinic as an obstetrician, supervises the Chinese medicine outpatient clinic there and collaborates actively with Scuolatao Lugano.
