Work Experience

During his 10 years at university, Dr Richard obtained his medical degree in Geneva in 2010. He was able to develop his expertise in the treatment of complex cases in traumatology and prosthetics of the lower limbs, particularly the knee. He has also been involved in training medical students and mentoring young doctors. In addition, he wrote a thesis for which he was awarded the academic title of Doctor of Medicine (Dr. med.).

In November 2021, he will complete a one-year fellowship in ligamentous knee and sports traumatology in Lausanne (Dr L. Gillain) and then Lyon (Dr B. Sonnery-Cottet).

He is now self-employed in a group practice in Carouge.
